Today you could . . .

- Work to better understand accessible ICT issues
  - The Centre for Internet and Society
  - W3C's Web Accessibility Initiative
  - G3ICT (Toolkit)
  - WebAIM.org
  - Conference sponsors
- Work to support policies (e.g., National Policy on Electronic Accessibility) and procedures that will support accessibility and the UN CRPD.
- Work to assist education entities. These require leadership and commitment. Some helpful resources for web accessibility in education include
  - WebAIM 8-step model
  - GOALS self-study tool

Today you could . . .

- Make sure “accessibility procurement” is part of your practice
- Make sure your web developers have the knowledge and skills to create & maintain accessible web content
- Have tools available for them during development
  - E.g., WAVE.webaim.org
- Work on global efforts to get AT into the cloud so your students have access
